

2016

Association for the Advancement of Sustainability in Higher Education (AASHE)

SUSTAINABLE CAMPUS INDEX

Appalachian State University

Overall Performer among Master's Institutions

STARS Ranking

77.2

Appalachian

56.8 National average

53.8 Master's-granting university average

57.1 Average for similar size universities

STARS Ranking

95.6

Appalachian

55.8 National average

54.9 Master's-granting university average

55.3 Average for similar size universities

- 100 percent of Appalachian's academic departments offer either a sustainability-focused course or one that includes sustainability.
- All Appalachian students graduate from programs that have adopted at least one learning outcome that emphasizes sustainability.
- Appalachian offers both undergraduate and graduate academic degree programs, as well as immersive experience programs, that focus on sustainability.
- Appalachian continues to prioritize efforts to incentivize the expansion of its sustainability course offerings.